

Do you want to create new sustainable innovations to utilize fibre's full potential?

We are looking for two Specialists of mechanical fibre to work together with the industry's top scientists.

You are the person we are looking for, if you are interested in:

- implementing the latest ideas together with the industry experts
- steering research work at the best institutes and universities
- actively developing more sustainable solutions for the branch
- working in international teams

For more information go to www.storaenso.com/careers

STORAENSO 